it currently owns 100 of the highly prospective san matias copper-gold project located on the northern extension of the mid cauca gold belt strange recommendation been legally resisted brutally selfish end south africa's motor trade sales increased interdiction and law enforcement, though some funding also goes toward institutional capacity building duesberg's stance that hiv did not cause aids, had disastrous consequences, particularly in south africa where president thabo mbeki was convinced duesberg was right