"I'm well aware that this was needed so we could close school on Yom Kippur so students could attend services," Wasserman said.

"The drugs were for their own use." The means by which these substances protect against cancer cell initiation...