a temporary loan of over 300 pieces of ephemera was made from the graceland museum to give visitors in london a sense of the person who elvis was.

barn 34, located at 3400 coastal highway in ocean city, is a full service restaurant and entertainment venue owned and operated by mike, mary ann and michael lawson, formerly of the pirates den it's our go to place because usually the quality is there.