I understand that your “program” requires you to look into your own resentments and determine your part in it, but this blog is not about “revenge” as you suggest.

Many merchants have the capability to accept some popular currencies like US dollars, British pounds, euros, Canadian and Australian dollars, and much more.